

SUNDAY A.M. FEBRUARY 11, 2018

SERMON: God Cares About What We Teach And Practice In Religion

If we can find out whether God cares about what we teach and practice, then we can know He cares about us seeking His approval or authority for what we teach and practice.

What is the most effective way to show that God cares about what we teach and practice in religion? From His instructions and warnings.

If we can determine if God has given us instructions and has reinforced those instructions with warnings, then the only conclusion is that God truly cares about us seeking His approval, His authority in religion.

Tony Edwards